Unless specifically mentioned, the benefits and exclusions within each section apply to each person insured.

Certain words have a special meaning as shown under the heading 'Definition of words'. These words have been highlighted by the use of bold print throughout the policy document.

Information you need to tell us
There is certain information that we need to know as it may affect the terms of the insurance cover we can offer you.

You must, to the best of your knowledge, give accurate answers to the questions we ask when you buy your Allianz Global Assistance travel insurance Policy. If you do not answer the questions truthfully it could result in your policy being invalid and could mean that all or part of a claim may not be paid.

If you think you may have given us any incorrect answers, or if you want any help, please call Allianz Global Assistance travel insurance on 1890 800 270 as soon as possible and we will be able to tell you if we can still offer you cover.

Please note that your cancellation rights are no longer valid after this initial 14 day period.

Policy excess
Under some sections of your policy, you will have to pay an excess. This means that you will be responsible for paying the first part of the claim for each person insured, for each section, for each claim incident. The amount you have to pay is the excess.

Insurance Compensation Fund
We are a member of the Insurance Compensation Fund, which was formed under the Investment Compensation Act of 1998. You may be entitled to compensation from this scheme, if the insurer cannot provide the services you have paid for.

Governing law
Unless agreed otherwise, Irish law will apply and all communications and documentation in relation to this policy will be in English. In the event of a dispute concerning this policy the Irish courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

The insurer has paid or will pay the appropriate Stamp Duty in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 Stamp Duties Consolidation Act 1999.

24-hour emergency medical assistance

Please tell us immediately about any serious illness or accident abroad where you have to go into hospital or you may have to return home early or extend your stay because of any illness or injury. If you are unable to do this because the condition is life, limb, sight or organ threatening, you should contact us as soon as you can. You must also tell us if your medical expenses are over €500. If you are claiming for a minor illness or accident you should, where possible, pay the costs and reclaim the money from us when you return. You can call 24 hours a day 365 days a year or email.

Phone UK +44 20 8603 9675 Fax UK +44 20 8603 0204
email medical@allianz-assistance.co.uk

Please give us your age and your policy schedule number. Say that you are insured with Allianz Global Assistance travel insurance.

Below are some of the ways the 24-hour emergency medical assistance service can help.

Confirmation of payment
We will contact hospitals or doctors abroad and guarantee to pay their fees, providing you have a valid claim.

Repatriation
If our medical advisers think it would be in your medical interests to bring you back to your home or to a hospital or nursing home in your home country you will normally be transferred by regular airline or road ambulance. Where medically necessary in very serious or urgent cases, we will use an air ambulance. We will consult the treating doctor and our medical advisers first. If you need to go home early, the treating doctor must provide a certificate confirming that you are fit to travel. Without this the airline can refuse to carry any sick or injured person.

You can contact us at any time, day or night. You will be answered by one of our experienced assistance co-ordinators who you should give all relevant information to. Please make sure you have details of your policy before you phone.

Reciprocal health arrangements

European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)
• If you are travelling to other EU or European Economic Area (EEA) countries we would advise you to obtain the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) which will entitle you to certain free health arrangements in the EEA.
• Information about EHIC can be obtained from the Health Service Executive. Visit www.hse.ie or call the HSE Info Line 1850 24 1850.

Note
The EHIC does not cover the cost of medical treatment in a private hospital or clinic, the additional cost of returning to your home country or for a relative to stay or fly out to be with you. In a medical emergency you may have no control over the hospital you are taken to and the closest hospital may be private.

Australia
• If you are travelling to Australia you can enrol in Medicare which will entitle you to subsidised hospital treatments and medicines. You can do this by contacting a local Medicare office in Australia.
• All claims for refunds under the Medicare scheme must be made before you leave Australia. For more information on Medicare visit: www.medicareaustralia.gov.au or email medicare@medicareaustralia.gov.au.

If you make use of these arrangements or any other worldwide reciprocal health arrangement, which reduces your medical expenses, you will not have to pay an excess.
Health declaration and health exclusions

These apply to the Cancellation or curtailment charges, Emergency medical and associated expenses and Personal accident sections.

It is very important that you read the following:

   d) are awaiting treatment or the results of any tests or investigations;
2. You will not be covered if you travel against the advice of a doctor or where you would have been advised not to travel if you had sought their advice before beginning your journey.
3. You will not be covered if you know you will need medical treatment or consultation at any medical facility during your journey.
4. You will not be covered for any directly or indirectly related claim if, before your journey, a doctor diagnosed that you have a terminal condition.
5. You will not be covered if you were waiting for medical treatment or consultation at any medical facility or were under investigation for a medical condition when your policy was issued.
6. You will not be covered if you are traveling specifically for the purpose of obtaining and / or receiving any elective surgery, procedure or hospital treatment.

If we are unable to cover a medical condition, this will mean that any other person insured by us will not be able to make a claim arising from the medical condition(s). This may even apply if the person with the medical condition(s) purchases cover from another provider.

Exclusions relating to the health of someone not insured on this policy, but whose health may affect your decision whether to take or continue with your journey
You will not be covered for any directly or indirectly related claims (see note at the end of this section) arising from the health of a travelling companion, someone you were going to stay with, a close relative or a business associate if at the time your policy was issued:
   • you were aware they have been receiving medical treatment or consultation at any medical facility for a medical condition in the last 12 months;
   • you were aware they have been awaiting medical treatment or consultation at any medical facility or have been under investigation for a medical condition;
   • you were aware that a doctor had diagnosed them as having a terminal condition, or that their medical condition was likely to get worse in the next 12 months.

Note
Indirectly related claims
An indirectly related claim means a medical problem that is more likely to happen because of another medical problem you already have. Sometimes these conditions can lead to the development of other conditions. For example if you:
   • suffer from asthma, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease or other lung disease, you are more likely to get a chest infection.
   • have high blood pressure, high cholesterol or diabetes, you are more likely to have a heart attack or a stroke.
   • have osteoporosis, you are more likely to break or fracture a bone.
   • have or have had cancer, you are more likely to suffer with a secondary cancer.

This is not a private medical insurance policy and only gives cover for emergency medical treatment in the event of accident or unexpected illness occurring during your journey.

This could include a request for you to be medically examined or for a postmortem to be carried out in the event of your death. We will not give personal information about you to any other organisation without your specific agreement.
7. Send you home at any time during your journey if you are taken ill or injured. We will only do this if the doctor treating you and our medical advisers agree. If there is a dispute, we will ask for an independent medical opinion.
8. Not accept liability for costs incurred for repatriation or treatment if you refuse to follow advice from the treating doctor and our medical advisers.

We can recover, from you, all costs that you have used if you have travelled or made a claim or intend to make a claim.
10. Not to pay any claim on this policy (except under the Personal accident section) for any amounts covered by another insurance or by anyone or anywhere else, for example any amounts you can get back from private health insurance, any reciprocal health agreements, transport or accommodation provider, home contents insurer or any other claim amount recovered by you. In these circumstances we will only pay our share of the claim.
11. If you cancel or cut short your journey for any reason other than those specified in section 1 of this policy, all cover provided on your annual multi-trip policy for that journey will be cancelled without refunding your premium.
12. Ask you to pay us back any amounts that we have paid to you which are not covered by this policy.

WHAT YOU ARE COVERED FOR

If you die, are ill, or injured during your journey and you or your personal representative take legal action to claim damages or compensation for negligence against a third party we will do the following:

• nominate an appointed adviser to act for you. If you and we cannot agree on an appointed adviser, the matter can be referred to an Alternative Resolution Facility.
• pay up to €25,500 legal costs for legal action for you (but not more than €51,000 in total for all persons insured on this policy) for each event giving rise to a claim.

Note
• you must conduct your claim in the way requested by the appointed adviser;

• we will not be bound by any promises or undertakings which you give to the appointed adviser, or which you give to any person about payment of fees or expenses, without our consent;
• we can withdraw cover after we have agreed to the claim, if we think a reasonable settlement is unlikely or that the cost of the legal action could be more than the settlement.

- if you withdraw from a claim without our agreement. If this occurs legal costs that we have been paid must be repaid to us and all legal costs will become your responsibility;
- if we, you or your appropriate adviser are unable to recover legal costs incurred following a successful claim for compensation, we will be entitled to receive such costs from the compensation you receive. Any repayment to us is limited to the actual costs incurred and will not be more than half of your compensation amount;
