What are my obligations?

To avoid the policy being cancelled and claims being reduced or refused, you must:

When taking out this policy

- Provide the insurer with relevant, true and complete information allowing the insurer to underwrite the policy;
- Provide the insurer with supporting documents when requested;
- Pay the premium as detailed in the policy;
- Read the policy documentation carefully to ensure that it provides the cover needed and that all applicable terms and conditions are understood.

Once the policy is in effect

- Tell the insurer as soon as possible of any changes that arise and that may affect the cover;
- Take reasonable care to protect yourself and your property against accident, injury, loss and damage and to minimise any claim.

In the event of a claim

- Contact the insurer to make the claim immediately after an event arises, in accordance with the terms and conditions and provide the insurer with all supporting documents enabling to process the claim;
- Inform the insurer in case of dual insurance and tell the insurer if you have received payment from another insurer for all or part of the claim.

When and how do I pay?

Premium is paid at the time of the travel insurance subscription, by the means of payment accepted at the time of the purchase.

When does the cover start and end?

The cancellation cover starts from the date of purchase of the insurance policy and ends on the date of the trip departure indicated in the insurance policy.

The other covers stated in the insurance policy start on the date of the trip departure and end on the trip return date as indicated in the insurance policy.

The travel insurance cannot cover trips exceeding 90 consecutive days.

How do I cancel the contract?

The insurance contract ends at the agreed point in time. You do not have to cancel. The insured can cancel the insurance policy in the first 14 days following the purchase of the policy, if it does not meet their needs.

In the above case, please contact Air France to ask for the policy cancellation.

Please note that the cancellation of the policy is not possible if the insured has made a claim or started their journey.
